Class Will

- We, the class of 1954, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.
1. Norman Mohr, will nothing to nobody cause I haven't anybody to will anything to.
 1. Robert Kapp, will my quietness and meekness to Nevie Reiter.
 1. Carol Fruth, will my position as vice-pres. of county honor society to my sister Pam and my shorthand ability to Cleo Reiter.
 1. Jean Scherley, will my dark eyes and hair to David Bowerman and Gordon Peasel respectively.
 1. Richard Gurney, will my tallness to John Anway.
 1. Shirley Cole, will my ability to get to school just before the tardy bell rings to Bev Cole.
 1. Gerald Bonham, will my quiet spoken words to anyone in the Sophomore Class.
 1. Richard Bishop, will my ability to know the history assignment to Bob Holmer.
 1. Catherine Neikirk, will my tallness to Wanda Ferree, and my bookkeeping to any poor soul who can take it.
 1. Elsie Gore, will my two pair of glasses to anyone who can wear them.
 1. Richard Dye, will my red hair to anyone who wants the darn stuff.
 1. Nancy Logan, will my dramatics and music to Sandra George.
- We, Marlene Rhineberger and Phyllis Pontius, will our constant companionship to Cleo Reiter and Sandra George.
1. Barbara Watson, will my ability to participate in school plays to Gwen Wolfe.

PREAMBLE TO THE AMERICAN LEGION

For God and country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; To maintain law and order; To preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the great wars; To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; To combat the influence of both the classes and the masses; To make right the matter of might; To promote peace and good will on earth; To safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; To consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.
